

Tilo Richter & Jan Kottisch – Flash Preussen
Graphic Novel

„Word and picture can be a very strong team.“
(Katharina Manzke, SZENE HH)

Falsh Preußen, the superhero in swimming trunks, is in turmoil. One last task is ahead of him before he can resign. Together with its neighbor Simone he travels into his past – on the search for something that he has lost a child and since then not let go him. An exciting gain for the German graphic novel scene, which shows that sometimes less words are needed to tell a thrilling story.
